Teaching, Learning and Research Supports

The library supports teaching, learning and research through:

- Provision of access to a vast collection of information resources such in various formats; on and offline;
- Provision of research and academic writing tools and other services to enhance teaching, learning and research;
- Provision of a conducive studying environment;
- Provision of information searching, retrieval and digital literacy skills;
- Facilitating knowledge discovery, creation and management.

Ensuring the Optimisation of Information Resources

The library organises faculty/discipline-specific Workshops for:

- all categories of students on project, dissertations and theses writing;
- understanding similarity indexes, plagiarism issues in academic writings and AI-generative contents and its ethical use in academic writings;
- faculty members on the use of electronic information resources to enhance their scholarly publications;
- Role in University Ranking through the University's Repository (IR)

Promoting the Culture of Integrity and Honesty in Academic Writing

- Idea formation and conceptualisation of research topics
- Proposal development
- Evaluation of information sources, resources and reviewing related literature
- Putting together and word-processing the reports
- Research originality and ethical practices
- Final submission of projects and meeting the university's requirements and benchmarks.

➤ Deviation from the Norms (Academic Culture)

➤ Sharp and unwholesome Practices:

Projects/dissertations/Theses writing Contractors;

Projects/dissertations/Theses for sale/money;

Money in place of grades for Projects/dissertations/ Theses;

Enriching oneself illegitimately at the expense of the University.

Consequences

- Marring the Reputation of the University
- Loss of great opportunities (Grants, Fellowships, Sensitive Posts, Assignments, etc.)
- Those who do it can never be trusted by perceived benefactors and their victims
- What goes around comes around

Way Forward

➤ Revelation 2:5

➤ Acts. 17:30

➤ John 17:19
